Scott has been UK Level 4 qualified for over a decade. He divides his time between working out of the Portugal office for Chase Buchanan, meeting clients almost anywhere across the globe and time at home just outside of St. Andrews, Fife, Scotland.

Scott was born in and grew up in Bristol, in South West England. He started his career working in General Insurance but in December 1992 he joined a UK division of American Express called Acuma; which was one of the first fee based Financial Planning offerings in the UK. After just over 2-years he was invited to join the J Rothschild Partnership, latterly renamed St James's Place Wealth Management, where he remained active for 17-years. A high proportion of clients during this period were based in Bermuda, giving Scott a wealth of experience of working with international clients; before deciding to relocate to Qatar and accept a new challenge in Financial Services there.

After 10-years of working in the Middle East, Scott accepted an offer to join Chase Buchanan.

Scott is a very keen golfer and is involved as an active member of the St. Andrews Golf Club; his golf handicap is scratch. Scott and his wife also love to travel, and in the past, have based themselves in England, Qatar, the USA, Scotland and now Portugal.

Scott communicates well, has always been open to my needs and concern while empowering my decision making with his knowledge and expertise. I'd happily recommend Scott..

Gustavo Libardi

I have had Scott as my financial advisor for so many years. His knowledge and experience make me feel comfortable when investing my savings. Scott is an effective communicator because he can always decode complex subjects into an approachable conversation, especially when speaking to outsiders like me. I love the fact that Scott is always available for his clients when we come out with questions or fears regarding the financial market.
